Keynote Speaker

Traver Gruen-Kennedy

is the Vice President of Community and Government Affairs for DayJet.

DayJet has a simple yet powerful mission: to make on-demand regional travel widely accessible and affordable with the nation's first "Per-Seat, On-Demand" jet service. DayJet service combines the convenience and productivity of corporate jet travel with the availability and affordability of commercial air travel.

DayJet plans to launch the world's first "Per-Seat, On-Demand" jet service in the Southeastern U.S. by year's end.

Lunch Speaker

Charlie Thompson "Gunships, Grits, And Granny"

Charlie Thompson began his aviation career as a United States Army helicopter pilot. This career choice was based on several things. First, because of his age he knew he would be going to Vietnam. Second, Vietnam has lots of snakes. And last, snakes can't fly. Charlie spent a year in Vietnam flying helicopter gunships. Charlie has been playing with airplanes in one capacity or another for the last thirty years. His positions ranging from suitcase slinger to crew scheduler to director of flight control to president of his own aircraft charter broker company. He is also a fixed wing pilot, but he favors helicopters. His primary goal is to entertain, however he leaves his audiences with an important message: To a very large extent, our happiness is shaped by our attitudes and how we choose to look at life.

Thursday Afternoon Activities

Join us at the scenic Boxtree Lodge only 7 miles from the hotel near the entrance to the Blue Ridge Parkway. Games, athletic activities, networking, good food, and opportunities to relax in a beautiful mountainside environment with hiking trails, ponds, and access to the Roanoke River await conference attendees!!

What Do I Wear? Business Casual is appropriate for meetings. The Aviation Awards Banquet Wednesday evening is Business Dress. Thursday Afternoon Activities are casual.
